

Maine Parent Federation

Presents

March 10 Transition Series Meeting For Students, Parents & Professionals

At this month's meeting, we'll hear about financial planning, special needs trusts and pooled trusts and creative ways families may build stability into a loved one's life.

Guest speakers Attorney Jim Houle, founder of the Maine Pooled Trust, and Attorney Jane Quirion will join us to offer information and answer questions.

We will meet at the Brunswick High School Library, Wed.,
March 10. 6-8 PM

I greatly appreciate a RSVP for planning purposes. Hope you can make it!

This transition series is intended to be inclusive in order to address the needs of families & their children in all spectrums of learning, cognitive, developmental, emotional-behaviorial & physical differences.

FMI please contact: MPF's Midcoast Regional Coordinator
Beth Jones at 1-866-639-2804/ bjones@mpf.org

