(also available on our website: www.mpf.org)

This directory is a compilation of responses to a survey sent in the fall of 2020 to summer camps in Maine. We hope this information will help you choose a camp that meets your child’s needs. Most camps in the State of Maine are listed in a guide titled, Maine Summer Camps, published by the Maine Youth Camping Foundation. You can obtain a copy of their booklet by writing to: Maine Summer Camps/Maine Youth Camping Foundation, PO Box 1861, Portland, ME 04104, calling (207) 518-9557, or visiting their website at www.mainecamps.org.

  accessible

Camp STRIVE provides tweens, teens, and young adults, ages 11-24, with a supportive, safe, and active program during school vacations and throughout the summer. We believe that the camping experience is an extremely valuable one, providing an outlet for campers to develop long-lasting friendships, experience new things, and enjoy themselves in a safe and welcoming environment. Camp STRIVE is specifically designed for campers with intellectual and developmental disabilities who:
- Are successful with a 1 to 5 staff-to-camper ratio (can successfully be integrated in a group without 1:1 support)
- Do not present any behaviors requiring physical intervention from staff
- Do not have any challenges being safe in the community (i.e. do not elope)
- Are able to be fully independent in the restroom
